PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 15, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

From January 1, ...1862, to September 1, 1870, there departed ...from San Francisco for China, 18,904 Chi... ...Deducting the departures from the ...arrivals, and it will be seen that there are ...not over 18,000 Celestials in the whole ...country for it must be borne in mind that ...nearly all come by the Pacific route, and ...first touch American soil at San Francisco.

...The New York Express gives General ...Grant the following Christmas nuts to ...crack: "The election of a State Senator, ...in Philadelphia, whereby the Senate of ...Pennsylvania is made secure for the Demo... ...rats; the power to impeach Governor ...Holden, of North Carolina, for high ...crimes and misdemeanors against the peo... ...ple of his State, and the credit of his State, ...for corruption in office; the defeat of Bul... ...lock, Blodgett & Co., in Georgia, and the ...election of a legislature from two-thirds ...to three-fourths Democratic; the success ...in Georgia is almost overwhelming, and ...but for the fraudulent negro votes, the ...Federal administration, led by Bullock & ...Co., would have hardly a corporal's guard ...left."

...The Mayoralty of Mobile must be a fat ...office. The Register notes the fact that ...when Harrington (Rad.), the present in... ...cumbent came there, as soon as poor that ...starved hound would have denied his ...carcass. Now his office has yielded him ...houses, lands, horses, carriages, a healthy ...bank account, and a wholesome slice of ...the fat of the land generally.

ROUNDHEADS AND CAVALIERS.

This was one of the regular toasts at the recent celebration of the "landing of the Pilgrims" at Plymouth Rock. What cool audacity and self-righteous complacency on the part of the descendants of those who hung witches and Quakers on the same tree; sold Indians into slavery; first legalized the African slave trade and then urged its continuance against the protest the descendants of those same "Cavaliers!"

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SOUTHERN HOME.]

RELIEF FROM STATE DEBT.

Second only to the many and important changes in the organic law of this State is the question of the financial condition of North Carolina. The first business and duty of the Legislature appears to be to take the necessary steps to call a restricted Convention as soon as practicable. The subject next in importance is that of adopting some system in regard to the finances of the State. I propose to make a few suggestions upon this important subject.

The public debt, as called, of North Carolina is, I suppose, about $35,000,000. This is composed of two classes of bonds—the old debt, and bonds given for the accumulated interest upon it, amounting on the first of January next with interest to about $20,000,000. The other debt is the special tax bonds, and interest due to January 1st, 1870, amounting to about $15,000,000, still outstanding exclusive of those returned according to laws of the administration which issued them.

These special tax bonds are not the bonds of the real people of North Carolina. They were issued by a government de facto, established by Holden, Pool, Abbott and others, created by the Government at Washington city, and by military power, after having disfranchised about 10,000 of the largest property holders and most influential and best men of the State, and having enfranchised about 80,000 ignorant, quondam slaves. Thus, after tying the hands of thousands of the best men in the State, and enfranchising 80,000 African voters, this military power at Washington city, with such agents as Holden, Pool and Abbott, went to work and created what has been called a Government for North Carolina, which has ruled the State for the past two years. This was not a government of the people, or of their consent. It was a government of force, by fraud and in defiance of the rights of the intelligent property holders and tax-payers of the country.

The government, or its ruling majority, perpetrated many enormities; among others, the issue of over $20,000,000 of special tax-bonds was not among the least. It enacted this debt in a fraud upon the rights of the real people of the State, who had no hand in placing them in power, but who were forced to submit to their rule. This government, made without the consent of the real people of North Carolina and in defiance of their rights, was not a legitimate power of their creation. Sumner and Greeley are more responsible for this government than Graham or Bragg, or any other good men of the State. It was and is the government and creature of a Radical party at Washington City and those who supported it. This party out of the State is more responsible for its existence in North Carolina than Vance, Strong, Ashe, and a majority of the citizens of the State. Holden, Abbott and Pool were the main tools, cat's paws, used to accomplish a certain result for political purposes, regardless of the rights of the people of the State. This was not the government, in any democratic or republican sense, of our people.

This so-called government, without consulting the tax-payers and without their consent, issued these special tax bonds. The financial world knew their origin and they were issued into it covered with smut and branded with dishonor—offered at 40 cents on the $1, and then at 20—thus giving notice to all persons that these were dishonorial obligations, conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity.

They are not the bonds of North Carolina, and the tax-payers have no moral or legal obligation to provide for them, in any shape or manner; and let him be marked in the Legislature who proposes to recognize them as State bonds in any manner, or enforce one dollar of tax upon the people to redeem them. It is well known that "rings" are forming to buy up the Legislature to provide for these bonds or compromise them. But let the member be remembered by the people who proposes to treat with the holders of these unconstitutional obligations, issued in fraud and villainy. This is no debt of North Carolina, but a debt made by Federal power, carpet-baggers, and the white scum of the State, in defiance of the people and the constitution of the State. Those who helped to create the government and debt have the bonds, and there let them rest forever.

If the agents, who received the bonds with the taint upon them, have sold them to vile and arrant speculators, let them or their corporations settle their controversies. Let no member of the Legislature recognize these obligations, in any manner, or treat with the holders thereof.

ADDRESS TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, }
Raleigh, Dec. 19, 1870. }

To the colored people throughout the State:

The undersigned Representatives send greeting:

Know ye, that since the time that Haman conspired to destroy all the Jews who dwelt in the Persian Dominions, because he hated Mordecai, no wickedness hath been devised that will bear any comparison with some of the measures proposed by the dominant party in the present General Assembly. Indeed there is some analogy between our case and that of the Jews at that time. In Gov. Holden we have the despised Mordecai. His enemy stand forth as the exact counterpart of Haman. The poor people, especially the colored people, are the great body of victims appointed for the slaughter, and we as Representatives, occupying the place of power, as did Esther, feel it to be our duty to warn you of the impending danger, and arouse you to such action as may tend to avert, if possible, the threatened evil.

The only offence of Gov. Holden, and that which has brought down the wrath of the dominant party upon him is that he thwarted the designs of a band of Assassins, who had prepared to saturate this State in the blood of the poor people on the night before the last election on account of their political sentiments, and to prevent them from voting. Because he dispersed this murderous host, organized by the so-called Conservative party they propose to destroy him. First they propose to suspend him, then to go through with a mock trial before the Senate as they have already done before the House, where a true bill has been found without taking to testimony.

After impeachment, his enemies will not be satisfied until he is hanged, unless haply their own gallows should overtake them. When Gov. Holden is disposed of those whom he protected will be the next victims. For the blood of one man will not satiate their thirst. They are mad because their slave property is lost. They are mad because the Reconstruction measures have triumphed, and we are permitted to represent you in this body. They are mad because we refuse to bow the knee to them.

Like Haman, who, after speaking of his riches, the multitude of his children, and his preferment both by the King and Queen, yet declared it availed nothing so long as Mordecai sat at the King's gate—so with our enemies. It avails nothing, that they have got control of the General Assembly, by deception, fraud and intimidation; so long as the friend of the poor, and the protector of the innocent and defenceless, occupies the Chair of State, and you have the right to go to the polls unmolested. They have therefore commenced a system of disfranchisement, by amending the charters of towns, by allowing but one day for voting, by allowing voters to be challenged at the polls, and by requiring each to vote in the township in which he resides. They have thereby already disfranchised thousands. But progress in this way is too slow for their purpose. They therefore proposed to call a Convention. Having repealed the militia law, they propose to let loose their murderous band, upon us and thus secure a majority of the delegates to this Convention. When this is done our liberties are at an end.

To avert the impending evil we see no power in the arm of flesh. We feel that we have too long neglected to seek aid at that source that never fails. The laws of righteous retribution have not been repealed, but are in force upon the statutes of the Almighty. Justice will not sleep forever. If we call upon God he will hear and answer us.

We therefore propose a day of fasting and prayer throughout the State. Let us ask God to bring our good friend the Governor triumphantly through this ordeal, and to avert the evils that are hanging over us.

LET FRIDAY THE 13TH DAY OF JANUARY be set apart as a day of fasting and prayer, throughout our habitations. Let no strong drink or other luxuries be used for the three days' preceding. Let the people assemble in their places of worship and cry mightily unto the Lord. Let the maid-servants whose employment will not permit them to worship during the fore noon ask their employers to allow them the afternoon, that they may spend it in fasting and prayer on behalf of the Governor and our suffering people.

Let the Ministers of the Gospel proclaim this fast and see that it is observed. If this call is heartily responded to God will deliver us.

ST. JOHN'S, OXFORD.

MR. EDITOR:—The first session of St. John's College closed on the 20th, with a Concert. The citizens of Granville, with visitors from Warren, Mecklenburg and other Counties, pronounce it the finest exhibition of classical music ever known in Oxford. Strains of melody filled the soul with joy as the sweet notes floated gently through the crowded Chapel. The mind was illuminated by the purity and sweetness of woman's voice, as it elevated where nature willed its sweet chords, and drew from the enthusiastic crowd a flow of pure, sweet language with merited applause.

The instrumental music reflected great credit on Professor Whitaker and Miss Riddick, as the training of the voice did upon Miss Hubard. The choruses were well sung, and the pupils deserve praise for acquitting themselves so handsomely; but special mention should be awarded Misses Mary Hunt and Mary Carroll, for their sweet duetts and solos, with the plaintive notes of "Driven from Home," so admirably sung by Miss Katie Kingsbury.

Long may the sweet voice of woman be cultivated to make every act of her life gentle, tender and pleasing. S. A. E.

Oxford, Dec. 26, 1870.

In the Tennessee Legislature several resolutions with reference to a new State have passed first reading. Two of them propose the establishment of the State of Franklard out of East Tennessee, and the third one proposes that portion of East Tennessee east of the Tennessee river.

GOV. VANCE'S CARD.

Gov. Vance, Senator elect, has written a card to the editor of the Washington Chronicle, which we find published in the New York World and copy below. If it had not the signature of his name to it, it would be readily known as his, for it is Zeb-Vance-ish from beginning to end:

To the editor of the Washington Chronicle:

You have stricken me some heavy and some unjust blows. Will you allow me to parry through your columns? Referring to my election to the United States Senate you charge, in a recent issue, that it has been my constant boast that my opinions and feelings have undergone no change since the war, that my children are taught to hate the government, &c. I deny this last most emphatically. It is simply untrue. It is difficult to tell what you mean by the former. If a four years' war had been fought to prove the incorrectness of the multiplication table, I do know how the victor could force upon their adversaries the conclusion that that venerable institution lied. If you mean that my abstract opinions as to what was right have not been changed by the results of the war, you are correct; but if you meant to say that I do so accept those results, each and all of them, and guide my conduct as a citizen thereby, your charge is incorrect. I can well see how a beaten party may be required to acknowledge that fact, and to engage that he will forever refrain from attempting these things again which were the cause of the collision. But it seems to me that he would be quite a sorry dog, indeed, who should acknowledge that he had for four years participated in all the horrors and calamities of civil war for a cause that had so little reason to sustain it that it had become wrong as soon as two men and $10 proved too strong for one man and $1. You also charge that "less than three weeks ago, in a speech delivered in Wilmington, he (I) said that he (I) never asked for a pardon, and never would," &c. It is sufficient to say, in reply to this, that the last political speech I made in that city was in August, 1864.—So that is an error, as is also the coarse and profane expression which you allege I uttered "some time ago," and which has been denied by me again and again. But the charge which most concerns me of the many which you bring against me is that my skirts are not clear "of responsibility for the inhuman treatment of Union soldiers at Salisbury during the late war."—I am not disposed to disavow my share in that great struggle. However opposed to it at the beginning, it would be worse than unmanful in me to deny that when forced into it by the action of my State, I went into the war with all my might and persisted to the end. But I do deny that I exceeded in any way the bounds of civilized warfare. I do claim that I fought that fight with manliness and humanity. So far from any responsibility whatever resting upon me for the ill treatment of prisoners, it is well known that they were exclusively under the control of the Confederate authorities. Notwithstanding this, when informed of the condition of these prisoners, I wrote at once to the Secretary of War and urged him, if it was possible, to provide for their wants; and I secured the passage of an act of our then General Assembly, authorizing me to furnish them supplies of blankets and clothing on condition that I would make an arrangement with the Federal authorities to furnish similar supplies to North Carolina soldiers in Northern prisons.—Before this could be effected the prisoners were removed from Salisbury.—The proof of this may be found in my official letter book in custody of the government at Washington, and in the acts of the Legislature of North Carolina. The industry which it is said has been exerted in hunting my record is most remarkable; since it has exhumed almost as much of what I did not, as what I did do. And it seems also, that the acts with which I am justly chargeable are regarded as a reason why amnesty should never be extended to me. If I had not committed them I should need no amnesty. For this reason I expect to ask for it. We, of the South, have been told again and again that we must give up the dead issues of the past, accept things as we find them, and strive to improve the future. This is good advice from our Northern brethren. I, for one, resolve to conform to it, and propose again to participate in the service and the honors of my country. Instead of lending me a helping hand, many who were loudest in their exhortations begin to search through that thing of dead issues—the past—for reasons why I should not be permitted to improve the future; and a law, by which I am made a degraded man in the land of my birth, is held up before my eyes for a memorial, and a testimony that the past, like the poor, is ever with me! How can we thus forget it? Will you, sir, help us? Will the victors attend the funeral of this past, and throw the first clod upon its coffin? If so, I will engage that it will be buried forever. Because we held fast the bond of faithfulness to each other in the shadows of defeat and humiliation is no reason why, if permitted, we should not glory in the splendors of the great republic. Because we refuse to leave off mourning over the desolation of our homes and the slaughter of our sons, is no reason why we should refuse to rejoice over the prosperity of the whole reunited land. Because we refuse to turn our backs on the brave and honest, living and dead, who followed our banners in obedience to the doctrine of State sovereignty, is no reason why we should not fraternize with equally brave and honest men who fought on the other side. I protest to you, sir, that I am an obedient and law-observing citizen of the United States; that I acquiesce in and will maintain all the legitimate results of the war; that I earnestly desire the unity and perpetuity of the whole country, its prosperity and honor. I desire never again to see its great energies, its vast resources, its illustrious soldiers, and its wise statesmen engaged in the ignoble task of self-destruction; but fervently pray that every atom of the wealth of its bosom, and every spark of the genius of its children may be devoted to the common welfare, henceforth and forever. And in attestation of all this, I pledge a faith which stood by a sinking cause through misfortune and defeat, bright and untarnished—as my bitterest enemy must say—because honor and duty required it. Very respectfully, sir, your obedient servant,

ZEBULON B. VANCE.

American civilization is asserting itself in Japan. Whisky is becoming popular there; burglaries occur every night at Yeddo; steam fire engines from the United States are en route; Yeddo is to have a fire brigade; and the great hotel in that city has passed into American hands. If, now, the Japanese could contrive to have railroad accidents every day, and fires nights, and send a few thieves, bigamists and counterfeiters to Congress, they would become a civilized people.

Santa Anna is old; but neither age, time, circumstance, destiny nor death, nor all together, are probably equal to the subjugation of the irascible old Mexican dictator. From his cock-pit in the island of St. Thomas he continues to crow defiance and a vengeful pronunciamento against Juarez for daring to include him in his recent amnesty to political offenders. Santa Anna indignantly refuses to be amnestied; tells Juarez he despises his pardon, and entertains sentiments of great contempt for the man who should venture to offer him a pardon.

The Rev. T. K. Beecher, of Elmira, N. Y., said some unpleasant things about H. B. Smith, just elected to Congress from the Elmira district, Smith remarked to him that those statements were conspicuously inexact. Beecher exclaimed, in decided tones: "Do you want to get up a quarrel with the Beecher family?" "No, sir," said Smith, "but I want to know if you intend to get up a fight with the Smith family. An armistice was declared.

The new postal cards in England are already suggesting plenty of expedients for making the communications they carry secret. Invisible ink is advertised, systems of cypher are brought out, and inscrutable languages adopted. Hebrew, Arabic, and Russian have already defied the supervision of postmen and their assistants.

The President tells us that the negroes of San Domingo "yearn for the protection of our free institutions, our progress and civilization." There is probably not a single negro on the island who ever heard of our free institutions, our progress, and civilization; but if there is, and he actually yearns for them, our highest duty to ourselves is to let him yearn.

JOB PRINTING.—We would say to our friends, that we are now prepared to do Job Printing of all kinds, plain or in colors, from a small card to a book as big as a Family Bible, and will charge for such work only living prices. We solicit orders, and will fill them promptly when received.

"THE NURSERY" is the title of a monthly magazine, designed for the youngest readers, published by John L. Shorey, 36, Bromfield street, Boston, price $1.50 per annum. We have not seen anything in the way of a "Child's paper" that would be more pleasing, useful and instructive to young—very young, readers than this magazine. The stories are short, simple and plainly printed, with illustrations on every page; in short, it is in every respect adapted to the class for which it is published, and we commend it to parents.

A SHAMEFUL SPECTACLE.—We are informed on good authority, that a high Judicial functionary of this State, went to Christ Church, in this city on Sunday last, in a state of deep inebriety; that he took a seat in a pew, rolled over on one side, apparently oblivious of all around him, and occasionally amused himself, or enlivened his piety, by stamping three times on the floor, repeating the exercise at intervals, throughout the services, and at last, when the services were ended, he went out, taking both sides of the aisle at the same time, and nearly falling on a lady seated in one of the pews.

We have no comments to offer, except that the "power of the Judiciary seemed to be exhausted" for the time being, and was not in a condition to "substantially sustain" anything, not even its own equilibrium, in a word, had "played out."

An Alabama Judge, who was too drunk to sit upon the bench, was put in jail recently by the Sheriff for contempt of Court. Why can't our Sheriffs and Marshals do their duty sometimes?

KU KLUX AND LEAGUES.—We clip the following paragraph from the Philadelphia Age of the 20th inst:

Startling facts are beginning to creep out in the South with reference to the plots and machinations of the Radical leaders. Recently, a dying colored Loyal Leaguer, in Raleigh, North Carolina, confessed that the outrages committed in that vicinity, and charged to the imaginary Ku Klux organization, were all committed by the members of the Loyal League, at the suggestion of Northern carpet-baggers. This was followed by the case of a negro, who went before a court, in Tennessee, and swore that the Grand Cyclops of a Ku Klux organization, in his county, was an ex-Radical Congressman from that State. These statements are true, and the time will come when a full exposition of the conduct of the Radical leaders, in connection with the outrages in the South, will be fully exposed. That nine-tenths of the outrages which have been committed in the South since the close of the war, were committed at the instigation of Radical leaders, for political effect, we have never for one moment, doubted.

The facts stated in this paragraph are correct, except that the confession of the dying Loyal Leaguer, located in Raleigh, occurred in Chatham county. The negro died of pneumonia, and only made the confession when convinced that he could not recover.

Several of the negroes now under arrest for barn burning in this county alleged, in the presence of responsible parties, that they were instigated to the outrages charged upon them by a certain white Radical. It is certain that this same white Radical, suddenly left the State on the negroes being arrested. There will be some startling developements in regard to this matter before long.

NOT TO BE.—The Standard, just before it was laid down to sleep, not to be aroused from its nap until after the 3rd of January, said, "There is no truth in the report that Fayetteville street is to be paved with Nicholson pavement."

No, for the reason that Corporation as well as State "Rings" have gone the way of Pearson's writs—they have "played out." A party who hoped to make one more heavy grab into the city Treasury, h aded by the Governor's valet de chambre, originated a scheme to cheat the tax payers of the city out of $100,000, in addition to the $60,000 already drawn from them, and a bill was introduced into the Senate for that purpose, by the Senator from Wake, and advocated by the Senator from Wayne, and, but for the timely aid and watchfulness of members outside of Wake, the infamous plan would have succeeded. But it failed, and now sure enough there is no prospect of Fayetteville street being laid with Nicholson pavement, under a fat contract, a la Market House.

American bonds are now said be almost neglected at Frankfort, the attention of financial men being turned to the new PUBLIC PRINTER.—I contracted for the Public Printing for North Carolina, on the 13th of December, 1870, with a Joint Committee of the two Houses of the General Assembly, duly authorized by that body to make the contract; I therefore notify all parties, Heads of Departments and others, for whose public printing is to be executed, that I am prepared to do it, and I notify all parties that I claim by the contract alluded to, all the public printing of the State since the above date, in accordance with the terms agreed on with the Committee.

J. B. MOORE.

SKATING.—The "boys" had the best season for skating last Monday and Tuesday, that they have had for many years. Every pond in the vicinity was alive with joyous crowds enjoying this healthful and pleasant exercise. A large number visited the ice pond of the Insane Asylum, where there was witnessed some nice feats in skating. Some, it is true, seemed to be trying their best to push holes through the ice with their heads and ——some other parts of the body, but most of the performers were well skilled in the art. Among the best skaters were Mr. Paul Linke and Barney, who, for grace of motion and speed are not often equalled in this latitude.

CANE AWARDED.—At the close of the Catholic Fair at St. John's Church, just before the holidays, a gentleman presented a silver headed cane to be awarded to the ugliest man in the Legislature. Messrs. J. O. Wilcox and J. S. Read were appointed to count the votes and award the prize.—The votes polled were thirteen, of which Mr. L. J. Moore got two, and Mr. David Settle eleven.

We understand the committee will call a special night session on the re-assembling of the Legislature, for the purpose of presenting the cane, on which occasion there will be the usual amount of happy surprises, (if this paragraph don't prevent congratulatory speeches, &c., &c.,) in the meantime Sheriff Lee (who might have stood a chance for the cane, if he had been a member,) has the cane in custody for safe keeping, until the time of presentation.

ELECTIONS POSTPONED.—From notices for municipal meetings to nominate candidates, which appear in several of our State exchanges, it seems the fact is not understood that all the municipal elections in the State have been postponed, with two or three special exceptions, until the first Monday in May next, by an act of the Legislature. This act may be found in the advertising columns of the SENTINEL, to-day, in the advertisement of Mayor Harrison, of this city. The act was passed and ratified just before the recess. We would publish it in our reading columns, but as it is published in the advertising columns, we refer to it there, where it provisions may be seen.

SNOW AGAIN.—We all waked up here about, yesterday morning, and found the light feathery snow spreading its beautiful mantle of white over the ground, the houses and trees again. It was unexpected, and, we are informed, that the necessity of making fresh tracks in it, gave trouble to many who would prefer, from ground to walk on at very early dawn.

RAILROAD NEWS.—The news from Woodfin, (whether reliable or not, we cannot say,) is most unfavorable, as is in stance, the following: That Hopkins Co., the Bankers in London, with whom the Florida Bonds were deposited, have refused to turn over the money, until from the sale of said Bonds, upon the case, that Florida may in some way, be an interest in them.

We clip the above paragraph from the Asheville News. So far as getting anything out of the Florida bonds is concerned, we never believed it would be done, but Mr. Woodfin, himself, informed us that he had made certain arrangement for enough to lay about 60 miles Railroad, has the prospect of the iron goose gomering" too!

MAYOR'S COURT.—Notwithstanding the general license indulged in above times of jollification, this tribunal entirely without business. No day night was arraigned to pay the penalty of the previous night's misconduct. We hope that this auspicious state of affairs may continue to reign in the land, the dwellers therein, may, always be educated sober, virtuous and law-abiding.

ATTENTION COMMISSIONERS.—Time and again called the attention of the city authorities to the wretched condition in which the sidewalks of that part of Hargett street, West of Fayetteville street, have remained for the past year. Since the wet spell of the present days citizens living upon this much neglected street, have had to daily wade through mud and water in going to and from their houses to attend their avocations. Other streets in other portions of the city have been worked and made, in some degree, passable, and do not see why some attention has been given to this locality. If the skin our present city officials were clear of their short comings, the disgraceful and deplorable condition of this street is enough to damn their administration entire.

A. W. Dimock, twenty-six years old is one of the greatest operators in Wall street. He went there in 1865 a penniless youth, and in two years failed for $1,000,000. He got over that and is now appraised at $4,000,000.

MARRIED,

At the residence of the bride's father, on Thursday, Dec. 22nd by Rev. J. Worrell Lamoure, Rector of St. Stephens Church, Goldsboro, Ed. F. SMALL of Wilson, and JULIA J. TILLMAN of Smithfield, N. C. No cards.

At the residence of Mr. Perrin Gowen on Thursday the 15th inst., by W. I. Bucker, Esq., Mr. PASCHAL POOLE to Miss HENRIETTA PENNY, all of Wake county.

DIED,

On the 6th of December 1870, at his residence near Stantonsburg, N. C., of pneumonia, Col. WILLIAM L. KENNEDY, aged 67 years.

Col. KENNEDY was a native of Washington, N. C. and at the outbreak of the war was one of our most prominent citizens. For many years, he was the recognized leader of the Democratic party in Beaufort county. In 1863, Col. K. represented the county in the lower branch of the State Legislature, bearing then a bright record of his devotion and fidelity to his constituents. He subsequently served with credit as a member of Gov. Bragg's council and held several honorary appointments. He was by nature brave and chivalrous; Ardent in temperament and energetic in action, he was a most zealous partisan and an unflinching advocate of the political dogmas of his party. Always impetuous, he was perhaps sometimes betrayed into acts of imprudence, but he ever strove to be just. For he was the soul of honor, and had in an eminent degree, all the noble instincts of a high-toned gentleman. So positive in character and persevering in all his pursuits, it is not strange that he drew around him a staunch circle of admiring friends. Upright in his dealings with his fellow man, genial in the social circle, and ever distinguished for his uniform politeness, he commanded respect even where he failed to win friendship.

The latter years of his life wrought in him a change so gradual and yet so decided, that his youngest friends felt a tender interest in the impending sacrifice as the silver frost on his locks, than of the dashing Hotspur of their early admiration. His last days were made bright by that light which shineth from above, and he died with a steadfast faith in the promises of a blessed Redeemer. May his bereaved family receive from that source, the consolation which the world and human sympathy cannot give. His remains were brought to Washington by the Steamer Cotton Plant, for interment, where they were received by a large concourse of our citizens and escorted to his last resting place by the Masonic fraternity. He now sleeps quietly with his fathers. Peace be to his ashes.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 140 prizes in all, and little balls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until le drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blind folded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to be correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING—YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers were the principal prizes: No [illegible], $5,000; No [illegible], $1,500; No 3226, $1,000; No 2845, $2,000; No 130, $1,000; No 1435, $1,000; No 1480, $500. POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks upon which elements of admirable stability of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The law of New York compels Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

Having had thirty years experience in this business he flatters himself that he cannot be excelled North or South. He refers to those who patronized him in the Fall of 1868, while manufacturing here, and every Chapel Hill student who has been there within the last thirty (30) years.
